Washtenaw Association for Community Advocacy Presents:

Everything You Wanted to Know About.....Learning Series

ACA staff will present a series of workshops for families who have a child or adult member with a developmental disability. We are very excited to present these information sessions to our membership and the public who have an interest in supporting people to have full and self-determined lives. We are planning on a series of monthly workshops September through June with the exception of December. The workshops are scheduled for the second Mondays from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm at the Mallet's Creek Library, 3090 E. Eisenhower Parkway (east of Stone School Road), Ann Arbor, MI 48104. For more information and to register please contact ACA at 734-662-1256 or go to our website at <http://www.washtenawaca.org>. There will no fee for these workshops. We are offering these workshops in collaboration with the Ann Arbor Public Library.

Topics include:

- September 14, 2009—Children's Health Waivers and other programs
- October 12, 2009—Individualized Education Plans and the Inclusive Classroom
- November 9, 2009--Planning for Transition Starting in High School
- January 11, 2010--Self Determination
- February 8, 2010--Person Center Planning
- March 8, 2010--Community Resources
- April 12, 2010—Teaching about Sexuality
- May 10, 2010—Social Security and other benefits
- June 14, 2010--Estate planning, wills, and trusts

We hope you will join us for some or all of these evenings.

Professionals are welcome too!
