Affidavit Regarding Fees

I, Attorney _____
usually charge in the range of of $240 to $300 per hour when providing attorney services for my clients. Other attorneys in this field charge the approximate range of $200 to over $400 per hour.

I practice in the areas of elder law, probate law, consumer law, disability law, and administrative law. Michigan currently does not have a system of specialization in areas of the law. I have particular expertise in incapacity issues and in planning for persons with special needs. I am the former chair of both the Elder Law and Disability Rights Sections of the State Bar of Michigan and the former chair of both the Standing Committee on the Unauthorized Practice of Law and the Professional Standards and Legal Education Committees of the State Bar of Michigan. I served as Special Advisor to the Governor's Task Force on Elder Abuse. I am currently a council member of both the Probate and Estate Planning Section and the Administrative Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan and serve as treasurer of the latter. I am a director and secretary of the Ingham County Bar Association and co-chair of the Probate and Estate Planning Committee of the Washtenaw County Bar Association. I have taught courses at Thomas M. Cooley Law School, Ave Maria Law School, and the Michigan State University School of Law.
