BENEFITS CHECKLIST

(Updated 01/15/16)

This resource guide is used to determine if a special needs trust beneficiary is getting all the public benefits they can.

BENEFITS – OFFICAL GOVERNMENT WEBSITES:

With more than 1,000 federally-funded benefits and assistance programs available to people with disabilities, Veterans and others, finding the benefits for which you might be eligible can sometimes be difficult. Here's some information to help point you in the right direction:

1. Benefits.gov - The official benefits website of the U.S. government informs citizens of benefits they may be eligible for and provides information on how to apply for assistance.
www.benefits.gov - Phone: (800) 333-4636
2. Disability.gov - Federal government website that provides an interactive, community-driven information network of disability-related programs, services, laws and benefits. The Benefits Section has information about the eligibility requirements for receiving Social Security disability (SSDI and SSI) benefits, disability benefits for children and how to apply for Social Security.
www.disability.gov
3. National Center for Benefits Outreach and Enrollment (Administration on Aging) - Many older Americans are eligible for, but do not receive federal and state benefits ranging from income supplements and energy assistance to health care assistance. It is estimated, for example, that 2 to 3 million low-income beneficiaries are eligible for, but are not receiving, low-income subsidies under the Medicare Part D prescription drug benefit. The National Center for Senior Benefits Outreach and Enrollment (Center) was funded by AoA beginning in 2008 to begin to address this issue. http://www.aoa.gov/AoARoot/AoA_Programs/HCLTC/Senior_Benefits/index.aspx
4. U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services - The United States government's principal agency for protecting the health of all Americans and providing essential human services, especially for those who are least able to help themselves. www.hhs.gov/ - (877) 696-6775
5. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) (U.S. Dept. of Agriculture) - (formerly called Food Stamps): www.fns.usda.gov/snap/. National toll free number: (800) 221-5689 (leave message to have information mailed). Michigan: (800) 481-4989

6. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) - Administered by The Office of Family Assistance – Phone (202) 401-9275. <http://www.dphhs.mt.gov/hcsd/tanf/tanfeligibility.shtml>
7. U.S. Dept. of Veterans Affairs - Veterans Benefits – <http://www.vba.va.gov/VBA/index.asp>. Also see Home Improvements and Structural Alternations (HISA): <http://www.prosthetics.va.gov/hisa2.asp>. Under the HISA program, veterans may receive assistance for home improvement necessary for continuation of treatment or for disability access to the home and essential facilities. Phone: (800) 827-1000
8. Benefits Checkup (A Service of the National Council on Aging) - For an overview to help find benefit programs and get all the benefits you deserve. Find and enroll in federal, state, local and private programs that help pay for prescription drugs, utility bills, meals, health care and other needs. www.benefitscheckup.org
9. Myssa.gov
